

The Duncan Tavern Reveal Gala

Saturday, December 3rd at 2:00 pm

Duncan Tavern ○ 323 High St, Paris, Kentucky ○ KSDAR Headquarters

Join us at Duncan Tavern for Dessert, Champagne, and the Reveal of Three Recently Restored Portraits in the Tavern's Collection!

Through the generous contribution of the Zink Administration, Duncan Tavern was able to restore three oil paintings in its collection. Join us and rediscover the beautiful artworks that have been hiding behind a century of dust and dirt – you'll be amazed!

Proceeds from the gala will help fund the restoration of William Ranney's Daniel Boone Escorting Settlers through the Cumberland Gap, currently located in the Major's Office.

Music will be provided by Marie Cook, an accomplished harpist who has played with the Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra.

Terry Boyle, the art conservator behind the beautiful restorations, will also be in attendance to talk about the pieces and the restoration process.
