

Duncan Tavern's Fall Festival & Homecoming

Celebrating the Tavern's Heyday, 1775-1812

Friday, October 27th - 9:00 am to 3:00 pm

Duncan Tavern o 323 High St, Paris, Kentucky o KSDAR Headquarters

Enjoy Coffee & Do-nut Holes while you visit our colorful Vendors:

Handmade Soap, Quilts, Honey, Brooms, Candles, Baskets, Wooden Boxes, Prints from by-gone days, Jewelry, Wreaths, Pumpkins, Spring Bulbs, and many, many more wonderful things!

Dulcimer music throughout the day!

Wear a period costume and enter our contest for "BEST DRESSED"! ***

Take a "selfie" with a Daniel Boone Look-A-Like or a Revolutionary Soldier

From 10:00 to 1:30 make beautiful "folded paper" greeting cards for chapter MQ credit, $5

At 11:00 come to the "Brick Dedication" honoring our newly laid walkway

Take a "voice" for a free stay at the Capitol Hotel in Frankfort at Fall Board

From 11:30 to 1:30 enjoy a delicious soup & sandwich lunch

At 2:00 listen to delightful ghost stories and tales of old Kentucky

Registration Form

Please Return by October 21st

Name: _____ Chapter: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Lunch, Ghost Stories & Tales of Old Kentucky $25 x _____ = _____

Choose ONE soup & ONE Sandwich: Potato Soup _____ Vegetable Soup _____

Chicken Salad _____ Pimento Cheese _____

Colonial Craft for Chapter MQ Credit $5 x _____ = _____

Can't attend, but wish to make this event more successful? Please make a generous donation! _____

Total _____

Send Registration Form and Payment by Oct. 21st to Fara Fox Tyree, 312 South Burns Ave., Winchester, Kentucky 40391

Make checks payable to "KSDAR Duncan Tavern" with "Fall Festival" in the memo